

A modern living room with light-colored walls covered in a repeating pattern of stylized lotus flowers in shades of teal, light blue, and pale green. In the center, a grey fabric sofa is adorned with several pillows and a light green fringed blanket. To the left, a white Eames-style rocking chair is partially visible. In the background, a white side table with a lamp and a potted plant sits near a doorway. A wire basket sits on the floor in the middle ground. The overall aesthetic is clean, bright, and contemporary.
